PREFACE

As this is my first Public Auction Sale, I would like to call the attention of my previous patrons, and thank them for past favors in my Mail Auction Sales, which they helped make a success. Collectors and Dealers will, I hope, find something in the following pages that will interest them. I sincerely hope that Collectors will avail themselves of the opportunity to enrich their collections, as it is not very often that such rarities are offered for sale. Among those worthy of special attention are the 1794 and 1836 Silver Dollars; 1875 Gold Dollar, 1804 Dime, 1841 and 1852 Half Cents and 1793 Liberty Cap Cent. Trusting that those who receive this catalogue will carefully give the following pages their attention, I remaim,

Yours respectfully,

J. BARNET, Numistatist,

720 E. 138th St.,

New York, N. Y.

Size of Coins, Medals, etc., is given in Millimeters.

CONDITION OF SALE

Coins, medals, etc., are sold so much per piece, United States proof sets excepted, which are sold as one lot, regardless the number of pieces they contain. If a lot contains two pieces and you wish to bid $1.00 for the two pieces, your bid should be 50 cents, not $1.00.

If bidding for the first time, kindly send references, or a deposit of 25 per cent. of bids, otherwise they will not be accepted. All coins, medals, etc. Guaranteed Genuine, and holds good indefinitely. Priced catalogue of this sale will be mailed a few days after sale, upon receipt of 40 cents.

TERMS, STRICTLY CASH.

My terms for buying are 10 per cent., purchaser to pay Express or Mail charges.
